

Practical Spirituality

Lesson 2 – Karma

Karma is the Sanskrit word literally meaning _____ or _____, and referred to in Buddhist traditions as action with _____ that leads to _____.

We commonly use phrases such as:

-- What _____, comes _____.

-- What you _____, you _____.

Newton's Law of Motion says _____ has a _____ in _____ and _____ in _____.

As a _____ in the _____, we are responsible for what we _____ and the _____.

Returning karma gives us an _____ to _____ some of our _____ to _____ through _____ to others. We also reap the _____ of our previous _____.

Our _____, _____, _____ and _____ are all creations that define our _____ and send forth degrees of _____ or _____ energies.

SPIRITUAL AWARENESS FELLOWSHIP

When we create in conjunction with _____
_____, which is our _____, then we are co-creators with God.

A good _____ of _____ is to see that all of life is _____.

Reincarnation is an aspect of the _____ of _____.

In which Gospel in the Bible do we see confirmation of reincarnation:

- John 9:1
- Luke 9:1
- Matthew 9:1