Lanello Witnesses Jesus' Upper Room Teaching on Government.

Beloved Disciples of Freedom,

We have just observed a historic election in the United States of America. As we contemplate the consequences of the candidates voted in by the American citizens of the USA, we might contemplate what God thinks of these events. Beloved Jesus did speak of our US government and country at the close of His earthly mission in the Upper Room in Galilee. Beloved Lanello recalled being present then in the Upper Room embodied as the scribe Mark.

Beloved Lanello imparts a portion of Jesus Upper Room Teaching from Lanello's dictation given April 18, 1976. In the Pearls of Wisdom

Volume 63, Numbers 41-43, we read the following from V. 63, N. 41

"Then the Master spoke to us of the governments that would come forth. And because the governments would be made up of those representatives who "Are the mingling of the tares and the wheat-the children of light and the children of darkness-there would be conflict. There would be rumbling and the discussions and there would be the extremists on the Right and the Left. They would come forth, and by the momentum of the prince of this world they would push their hatreds, their prejudices, and their pride, resulting in schism and division of the people who ought to be bearing the light of the Christ.

"Lanello continues: For he told us that Joseph would come and would lead the people of Israel to found the new nation and that Joseph would build

That nation on the foundation of the City Foursquare, on the foundation of the four freedoms, which in America today are the very pillars of the republican form of government.

"And we thought to ourselves, "Imagine meeting in public and actually being protected by the state instead of having to run from Caesar and from Rome!"

"We thought to ourselves, "Surely this is the dawn of a golden age that will come!" And we rejoiced to think that we would tarry and be there to observe the early beginnings of that age." (Volume 63, Numbers 42)

Please join us this Sunday as we meditate on words and study the Teachings of our Lord and Master.
